Please note:

1. A background check will be conducted on all household members age 18 years of age or older at the time of final application. A criminal history may or may not be a reason for denial of housing assistance. Failure to disclose any criminal activity requested at the time of final application will result in the denial of your application for housing assistance. The Cheyenne Housing Authority may give consideration to other circumstances relevant to the decision to provide or deny housing assistance.

2. Housing assistance will be denied to any household member who has ever been convicted of drug-related criminal activity for manufacture or production of methamphetamine on the premises of federally assisted housing or if any household member is subject to a lifetime registration requirement under any state's sex offender registration program.
3. Housing assistance may be denied if any adult member(s) of the household has been terminated from, evicted from or currently owes any money to any Housing Authority or subsidized housing development.

PREFERENCES CERTIFICATION: The CHA will select applicants based on the below preferences. After preferences are considered, selection will be based on date and time of application. An applicant qualifying for one preference listed below is given the same priority as an applicant qualifying for more than one preference. All preferences will be verified by a third party prior to housing assistance being provided.
